

The Do Not Call List should not be weakened, especially for telemarketers. It has been a joy to get phone calls from the people I know and love instead of constant interruption of life by telemarketers. Please do not weaken this law...if so it really invaded the privacy and respect of others.